New York, NY – August 18, 2021 Mizzen Capital, LP (“Mizzen”), a private credit fund, announced that it provided $9 million in Debt and Equity to support Columbia River Partners’ acquisition of Computer Technology Link Corp (“CTL”).

Headquartered in Portland, Oregon, CTL is the leading provider of a full suite of services for the K-12 market, from provisioning, distributing, and repairing, to managing all Chrome products and services.

Marilyn Adler, a Managing Partner at Mizzen said, “Mizzen is a strong supporter of quality education in the U.S. We support schools expanding access to advanced technologies which helps bridge the digital divide in our school systems. Mizzen is excited to partner with Columbia River Partners in this transaction.”

Nathan Chandrasekaran, a Partner at Columbia River Partners commented, “We are glad to form a partnership with CTL and Mizzen

Capital as we continue to build on the company’s strong momentum in providing equitable access to technology for school children.”

Eric Stromquist, CEO of Computer Technology Link said, “Mizzen and Columbia River Partners impressed us with their ability to understand our vision for growth and their seamless execution. We’re excited for what the future brings. We continue to lead in the field of technology by making it affordable and accessible to students from elementary school through high school.”
